SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HANOLD A. LUNDQUIST, D. D.
Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
Selected by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for June 17

THE CHURCH BEGINS ITS WORK

LESSON TEXT—Acts 5:29-32, 34-42.

GOLDEN TEXT—Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth—Acts 1:8.

The church of Jesus Christ, glorious in spite of her failings, is the greatest institution known to this world. That is true because while it is in this world, the church is not of the world, but of God. He established the church as the fellowship of believers to do His work in the world. For more than 19 centuries the Christian church has served Him with varying degrees of consecration and usefulness.

The beginning of the work of the church is of special interest, for such a study will show whether we are following in the right path. We find in our lesson that the early church was distinguished by:

1. Obedience to God, vs. 29-32.

The disciples held in the Holy Spirit and in proclaiming their risen Lord. Realizing that the apostles' message was winning the people, the leaders of the church administered the sacraments in the name of Christ (Acts 4:18). When they continued the priests then into prison, but an angel set them free (Acts 5:19).

When they were again apprehended and accused of disobeying the command of the high priests, Peter and the others responded by pointing out that they were under a higher command, that of God Himself. They would obey, come what may.

Who will deny that we need a renewal of that spirit in the church today? We need to lose our fear of men and their little authority, and regain a larger measure of obedience to God.

II. A Convicting Message (v. 33). When God's Word is preached with complete obedience to Him, something is sure to happen. Men and women will be convicted of their sin. They will be cut to the heart.

Change will be wrought in the hearts of two ways. Some will be repentant and will cry out with the jailer at Philippi, "What must I do to be saved?" (Acts 16:30). Turning to Christ, they will find deliverance from sin.

Others will harden themselves in their wicked ways and become even more bitter in their hatred of Christ and the church. In our lesson we find them taking counsel to kill the disciples. Knowing themselves to be wrong and seeing that God's word revealed their sin, but not being willing to give up, they tried to destroy the witness against them.

We see that same spirit operating today. We are sure, it does not usually show itself in such crude action as physical killing, although the day when that may happen again may not be far away.

In our cultivated time, it is revealed in a scholarly attack upon God's Word, an undermining of the faith of our young people in schools or colleges, or a ridiculing of those who wish to live a separated, consecrated life.

III. No Compromise (vv. 34, 35, 36-42).

A wise man, Gamaliel, presented what we would now call a program of appeasement. He urged that they wait and see what would happen. At first glance his idea seems to be most commendable, and of course it did save the lives of the disciples at the moment. But it was essentially a "do-nothing" policy of compromise. If he believed in what the disciples were doing, he should have come out boldly on their side.

Notice that the believers had no part in this scheme. They listened, but did not give assent. They took the beating and went right out and preached the gospel again. What a fine example for us to follow! Those who are alert to the real problems of the church today recognize that the willingness to compromise with the world, the flesh, and (so it seems at times) the devil, has come out boldly on their side.

IV. Absolute Fearlessness (vv. 40, 42).

The early church was a very small group of believers with no position of influence or power in the world. Humanly speaking, it would have been expedient for them to heed the admonition now twice given (compare Acts 4:18) and confine their testimony to a private witness.

But they had hearts which were aflame with the fire of God, a commission to take the good news of God's saving grace to all men, and the assurance of God's presence (see Matt. 28:18, 20; Acts 1:8), and they were absolutely fearless.

The world admires true courage not only on the battlefield, but in the pulpit.

The criticism which men in the armed services make of the church centers at this point, namely, that the church has been too timid about giving out the Word of God, about really believing and practicing it.

VOLUME 49

BIG BOND RALLY TO BE HELD IN ELBA SATURDAY, JUNE 30

One of the biggest rallies to be held since the beginning of the war will be held in Elba on Saturday, June 30, according to announcement of the local war finance committee.

Entertainment will be furnished by a band, war equipment from Camp Rucker will be on display, and there will be something of interest old and young throughout the day. Bond buyers will be given valuable prizes, and this feature alone will be worth your attention.

Coffee has always bought its full quota of bonds, but right now we are short of our goal and during this rally we must put our country over the top. Our boys out in the Pacific are fighting just as hard as they did on the other fronts, and we must continue our fighting here on the home front. The war is NOT OVER YET, and the Japs must be kept in line. Your bond will help do the job. There will be entertainment for you at the rally on June 30, besides you get more than your dollar's worth when you put it in a bond. Full details of the rally will be given next week.

Friends of Mr. Joe Young, carrier on Elba Route 1, will regret to learn of his serious illness at Edge hospital, Troy, where he is suffering from a brain hemorrhage. He has been ill since Saturday and was carried to the hospital Monday. Little change had been noted in his condition, Wednesday morning.

The City Council and Mayor of the City of Elba will be in session at City Hall on Friday, June 29, 1945, 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of receiving bids for the operation of the water supply system of the City of Elba. Specifications and full details for operating the system are available at City Hall and may be obtained by applying to City Clerk. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved by the said City.

CITY OF ELBA, ALA.,
L. P. MULLINS, Mayor.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Perdue received word one day last week that their son, Billie Perdue, had landed on the West Coast and expecting to be home by July 4th. He has made an outstanding record as a flyer in the Pacific campaign against the Japs and it is a great relief to his parents

7 COMMON SENSE REASONS

...why you as an American farmer should put every dollar you possibly can into War Bonds in the mighty 7th War Loan...

1 Farmers know that the demand for food is greater this year than ever before. And farmers are doing a magnificent job of producing it. The same urgent need applies to all war goods. For today the cost of the war is greater than ever.

Tons and tons of supplies must still flow to our millions of men in Europe. As you read this, still more tons must be shipped over the huge distances of the Pacific to our troops poised there already to begin the harvest. If we are not to let slip the opportunity to hit the Japs, hard—now we are at last in position to strike—we must supply these men with more of everything—new, harder hitting weapons... more powerful tanks... swift new giant planes—and more of them than ever before!

2 We must make sure that the tragic thousands of our wounded receive the best, most thorough care. That means money without stint—for bandages, for medicines, for thousands and thousands of completely equipped first-aid stations, dozens of hospital ships, hundreds of convalescent hospitals.

3 Last year, up to this time there had been two war loans. This year, to raise about the same amount of money, the 7th War Loan must do two jobs in one. And so your country is asking you to back up those millions of American boys slugging it out in the front lines—by digging down deep and buying twice as many War Bonds as you did last time.

4 And when you put your money—every cent you can—into those bigger Bonds in the big 7th War Loan, you'll be doing more than loaning cash for a vital, immediate war need—you'll be helping to fight the inflation that could wreck our nation's whole future. For loose money, in wartime when goods are scarce, tends to "bid up" the prices of things, the same as at an auction. Your War Bond money, too, will be safe and increasing in value until the time when you get back $4 for every $3 you invested.

5 The War Bonds you buy will mature in ten years to send your boy or girl through college... or to provide for your own security, for travel, or retirement.

6 Every $75 you put into a War Bond today will return you $100 at maturity; every $375 will yield you $500. And if you need to get your money back for an emergency—you can do so at any time you wish sixty days after the Bonds are issued. War Bonds are really the same as a cash reserve for emergencies, except that they increase steadily in value, and because each one is registered, you won't lose your money through fire, theft, or loss of the bonds.

7 In the years after the war when better-than-ever farm equipment will be available, your War Bonds will be a backlog for you to renew your machinery... to build that new barn... to improve your land.

But meantime—your idle dollars can be fighting dollars... put every one of them into the fight in the big Seventh War Loan!

Trade your folding money for fighting money!

Put every idle dollar on the line!

MUSIC LOVERS' CLUB

The May meeting of the Elba Music Lovers' Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Dixon with Mrs. Paul Rowe Brunson and Mrs. M. A. Owen joint hostesses. Bowls of roses and gladioli added to the attractiveness of the reception rooms.

The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. W. C. Braswell, president. Mrs. T. D. Kendrick gave the secretary's report.

A most interesting program was directed by Mrs. J. C. Fleming, the theme being, "A Mighty Fortress."

Mrs. Fleming gave an enjoyable talk on "Now Al-tars"; Mrs. George Collier's discourse on "Cathedral Choirs" was most interesting. A quartet, "National Hymn," sung by Mrs. W. C.

Braswell, Mrs. J. A. Carnley, Mrs. R. L. Cooper and Mrs. T. D. Kendrick, was very enjoyable; a piano solo, "Evening Hymn," was well rendered by Ann Dunaway. The Dextology, sung by the club, concluded the program.

An important feature of the meeting was the installation of officers for the ensuing year, and they, with the outgoing officers, were presented with beautiful corsages by the president, who expressed in well chosen words her appreciation to the retiring officers for their loyalty and cooperation during the past year.

A salad plate with eccacola was served during the social hour by the hostesses to the club members and guests.

A quartet, "National Hymn," sung by Mrs. W. C.

FIRE has less chance on the CONCRETE FARM

FAR out from the nearest fire department... what will happen if fire breaks out in your home or barn? The best answer is to build with concrete. For concrete can't burn. It resists fire; retards it and helps keep it from spreading. Protects your family. Helps save from destruction the valuable herd and equipment on which your productive capacity depends.

Concrete farm buildings are attractive and comfortable, economical to build and to own. If you need help, get in touch with your concrete contractor or your building material dealer.

Concrete farm jobs require a minimum of critical materials.

MAMMOTH TURNIP

Mr. C. R. Hudson, Jr., who lives at the head of the Hudson mill pond on the old Giles Hudson place, brought a very large purple top flat Dutch turnip to the Elba office Saturday. It measured 10 inches long and 27 inches around and tipped the scales at 6½ pounds. He had another turnip that weighed 3½ pounds which seemed small in comparison with the larger one.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Parker and children, Edwin, Karen and Mary, of Pensacola, Fla., returned home Sunday after visiting relatives in Basin community.

Don't Worry About Us!

We'll do it!"

They tell us that the fat salvage problem has got to be licked in the small cities, the towns and on the farms.

Our country has to have one hundred million more pounds of used fats this year. And we're the people who must save it. We've rolled up our sleeves! We'll save every drop and bit possible... and keep doing it till the last fat is licked.

HOW TO DO IT: Save all used fats in a tin can. Keep it handy to the stove. Scrape your broilers and roasting pans, skim soups and gravies. Keep meat trimmings and table scraps in a bowl.

Melt them down when your oven's going, add the liquid fat to the salvage can. Take can to your butcher as soon as it's full. He will give you four cents and two red points for every pound. Your County Agent or Home Demonstration Agent can give you full particulars.

THE NEW CHURCH IN THE PAGAN WORLD

LESSON TEXT—1 Timothy 6:11-16: 1 Peter 4:12-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness.—Matt. 6:33.

The church is world-wide in its ministry. Its first experiences of both advance and attack were in Jerusalem, but in due time, he Lord pressed its members out into the Gentile world to preach the gospel. These believers had to meet the challenge of a pagan world, rich in power, and steeped in age-old philosophies which ran counter to the teaching of Jesus Christ.

The story of how the church met that situation and came through victorious is one of the most thrilling and important sections of world history. We catch but a few glimpses of that time in the writings of Paul and Peter which make up our lesson today, but even those are full of instruction and inspiration. The church appears here as it went on:

1. Fighting the Good Fight of Faith (1 Tim. 6:11-16).

In the letter to Timothy, the Holy Spirit used Paul to instruct the early church regarding its life in the midst of an unbelieving world. In the verses immediately preceding our lesson we find a solemn warning against the wrong attitude of heart toward worldly possessions. "Godliness with contentment" is declared to be great gain.

But there is more to Christianity than inward grace, for that must show itself in daily fighting "the good fight of faith." That is done in three ways:

1. By godly living (v. 11). Believers are to flee those things which hinder spiritual progress, and give themselves to the cultivation of graces of a true Christian life.

Space does not permit discussion of these fine virtues of the faithful follower of Christ, but note how tremendously effective they could be (yes, and are today) against paganism. It is so true that the best argument for Christianity is a Christian, but he must be a real one.

2. In holy warfare (v. 12). Living for Christ is not accomplished by sitting in a spiritual rocking chair while the enemy is on the attack. No indeed, there is a good fight to be waged, both personally and as a body of believers.

"The Son of God goes forth to war," against evil in our day. "Who follows in His train?" Thank God, there are those who are on the battle line for God, but they need reinforcements. Who will volunteer today?

3. With blessed expectation (vv. 13-16). The soldier is ready to bear the "blood, sweat, and tears" of deadly conflict because he looks for victory. The soldier of Christ has a sure hope, for he follows Jesus Christ, already victorious over death, and one day soon to appear again as King of kings and Lord of lords.

In view of that expectation, the Christian is to live a consistent, clean and irreproachable life. And why not? If we look for the glorious and blessed and only Potentate, should we not be ready?

II. Meeting the Fiery Trial of Persecution (1 Pet. 4:12-16).

As Peter comforted the sorely tried believers in the early church, he urged them to meet their persecutions:

1. Without confusion (v. 12). We should expect trials in this world; yes, severe, fiery trials. Such things are common to all mankind, and the Christian should not expect to escape.

To them, such trials are real tests of their faith, an opportunity to show to the unbelieving world that God is able to deliver those who put their trust in Him!

To be forewarned is to be forearmed. "Think it not strange concerning the fiery trial." 2. With exceeding joy (v. 13-15). The believer is not to be ashamed of the troubles he bears for Christ's sake. A glory rests upon the one who is privileged to be a "partaker of Christ's sufferings" (v. 14) as he stands with Him who was "a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief" (Isa. 53:3).

Note that the believer is not to do anything which would justify others in making him suffer. It is a disgrace, a shame, which increases his cause of Christ, when a believer has to suffer because he has broken the law, or because he is "a busy body" (R. V. "meddler") in other men's matters.

3. For the glory of God (v. 16). The entire life of the believer should be lived for God's glory. If, then, he is called to pass through trials or to be persecuted for his faith, that, too, is something to be so borne as to glorify God.

The follower of Christ does not hang his head in shame as the difficulties of life come upon him. He trusts God, and by his poise and grace in the midst of difficult circumstances, declares to all the world that God is able to deliver.
